Barfield and Global Crossing Airlines Sign Full PBH Repair and Pool Support Agreement for Airbus A320/A321 Fleet

AFI KLM E&M US Subsidiary, Barfield, partners with Global Crossing Airlines in an agreement for the full repair and pool support for its A320/A321 fleet.

Paris, Amstelveen, Miami, May 25, 2021 – Barfield Inc., a subsidiary of Air France KLM Engineering & Maintenance (AFI KLM E&M) in the Americas, entered in an agreement to become a PBH repair and pool support center for Global Crossing A320/A321 fleet.

“We are excited to support Global Crossing as they build their operations. This is proof that our flexibility to adjust a program to meet their operations requirements was extremely important. We look forward to this opportunity to work with such a dynamic operation,” said Hervé Page, Chief Executive Officer of Barfield.

“We are honored to work with Barfield, part of AFI KLM E&M. They provided us a complete solution for our needs and provided the total flexibility that we need as a small airline with big growth plans,” declared Ed Wegel, Chairman and CEO of GlobalX. “As a multimillion-dollar agreement, this is a key strategic vendor relationship we have developed with Barfield,” Wegel added.
